Agenda items

1. Minutes approved from May 15, 2018.
2. 1:34 pm - Communications
Natalie Norlin was introduced to the group. Norlin recently purchased the Stoughton Center for the Performing Arts. She teaches and plays music there. Natalie would like to join the Arts Council. Verden would like to step down from the council. She will make arrangements with Mayor Swadley (whom arrived to the meeting after this discussion had occurred).

The Syttende Mai event at Chorus went well. Some of the artisans enjoyed the extra exposure for the weekend. There was discussion about the name if the event is held again as it was too similar to the Arts & Crafts Fair.

The drawing booth was, once again a hit at the Catfish River Music Festival.

3. 2:05 pm – Future Arts Council Events
Art Walk – There will be some food vendors at McFarland State Bank. The Arts Council will not be selling concessions as previously discussed. The opening reception will be across Jefferson from the Gazebo. Arts Council members were invited to join.
4. Next meeting: Tuesday, August 21, 2018 at 1:30 pm

Motion to adjourn was approved at 2:31 pm
