Old Business:

- a. Discussion and possible action regarding the draft Redevelopment Plan, potential approaches towards promoting the redevelopment of the area and potential public improvements that may be needed

Becker provided a brief summary of the memo included in the packet and focused mainly on the public improvements that might be needed. The RDA agreed with the improvements outlined in the memo and recommended they be included in the final redevelopment plan.

Becker also requested the RDA begin discussing the plan for reaching out to the individual private property owners. Mayor Swadley believes there needs to be collaboration between the RDA, City and private property owners to ensure success in this part of the plan. The overall approach to communicating with the private property owners will need to be sufficiently vetted and implemented prior to finalizing the redevelopment plan itself to avoid any misinterpretation of the RDA's goals. Reeves will work with Becker and City staff to finalize a plan that will be brought back to the next RDA meeting.

Springman discussed preservation of existing historical buildings with Peggy Veregin. Peggy is planning to compile information the State has available and forward it to Becker to assist him in completing the redevelopment plan. Becker will connect with Peggy and discuss further with the RDA at its next meeting.

- b. Discussion and possible action regarding Ayres Downtown Revitalization report and presentation

Springman inquired if the next steps to implement the recommendations in the report will be driven by the downtown business owners or if the City will need to be involved. Hirsch and Trow both noted the downtown business owners are currently collaborating and meeting to determine the correct path forward.

Reeves believes this document should be revisited and used as a tool as redevelopment occurs in this area in the future.

Reeves will follow up with Denise Duranczyk and Sharon Mason-Boersma to let them know the RDA is at their disposal as they work through implementing the recommendations in the report.

The members all agreed that redevelopment along the Railroad Corridor is critical to the success of downtown.

Trow will also reach out to the Stoughton Courier Hub to discuss the report and the current plans for moving forward.
